"Filming for this movie alone generated millions of dollars in economic activity for the region while providing employment for hundreds of our people, and we should continue working to attract similar projects in the future."

- Sean Patrick Maloney
U.S. Representative (NY-18)

"This is a prime example of New York State's Film Tax Credit Program working successfully to attract major productions to the Empire State and reaping significant benefits for local workforces and businesses."

- Howard Zemsky
Empire State Development President, CEO, and Commissioner

The production of "A Quiet Place" is a perfect example of the impact a motion picture production can have on a local economy...There is a great deal of competition for production locations throughout the United States and Canada. We thank Governor Cuomo and the New York State Legislators for having the foresight to keep our film tax credits competitive.

- John Ford
Local 52 IATSE Motion Picture Studio Mechanics President
