

$63 MILLION IN LOCAL GENERATED ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

CONTRIBUTED MORE THAN $31M IN WAGES
TO OVER 8,000 LOCAL WORKERS

In the 60 days spent shooting the star-studded, female-led cast of “Ocean’s 8” in New York, the production supported numerous local small businesses and vendors.

+$22M SPENT ON LOCAL RENTALS AND PURCHASES:	+$290K SPENT on transportation, including truck and car rentals	+$1.1M SPENT on local catering and other food items for the cast and crew
	+$2.4M SPENT on local wardrobe, including dry cleaning	+$2.4M SPENT on lodging

“ Thousands of New Yorkers had the opportunity to work on Ocean’s 8 and thousands more will recognize filming locations in their own neighborhoods. ”

- Charles H. Rivkin
MPAA Chairman and CEO

“ This exciting, all-female feature film will create hundreds of jobs, generate millions of dollars in economic impact and further build the booming film industry in the Empire State. ”

- Andrew Cuomo
Governor of New York State

“ New York State’s support of Ocean’s 8 leveraged over $63 million in economic impact and hundreds of hires. ”

- Howard Zensky
Empire State Development President, CEO, and Commissioner